

BARBED WIRE CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Everything in this puzzle has to do with barbed wire. Use the clues below to navigate your way through this prickly barbed-wire crossword puzzle. Look back in the blog post for the answers.

ACROSS

- the prickly part of barbed wire
- the inventor of barbed wire
- the number of wires needed to twist the barbs in place
- Farmers in Fresno spent $4,000 to build a wooden fence around their wheat fields.
- This is issued to an inventor.
- Barbed wire scratches worse than a cat. More like a _____
- In the 1800s, fence posts were cut from these.

DOWN

- These animals have thick hides to protect them from barbed wire.
- the weight of a roll of barbed wire (in pounds)
- Most livestock _____ barbed wire.
- These animals do not react well to barbed wire.
- These help you avoid scratches from barbed wire.

